Captured Bunnies

Mike was kneeling over Jane who was just now waking up. She had passed out on the floor of the hospital room after exhausting her powers. Blood ran from her ears and nose as a result of trying to stop the monster with her mind but her metaphorical battery was running low and she collapsed. As she did the monster had bolted after Maxine and left the two of them where they were.

Jane sat up weakly, looking at Mike with her big brown doe eyes, reaching up to rub the place on her head she had hit.

“Where’s Max?” She asked softly, letting Mike help her stand.

Mike parted his lips to answer but was cut off by Max’s scream of their names. It was so distant and far away but the two of them set off trying to find the source. Jane was still weak but she managed a slight jog beside Mike. The hallways were empty enough for the spider monster’s calls and roars to echo throughout the building which gave the two enough to follow but the hospital was huge with all sorts of turns and doors. It was so big that it took them nearly an hour to locate where the sound was coming from. Finally they turned the final corner and there she was. Both of them turned beet red at the state their friend was in. Her pretty ginger pigtail braids were a mess, she was sweaty and covered in some form of slime, and worse of all she was naked from the waist down, oozing slime from between her legs.

Mike rushed to her, taking off his jacket and covering her up. The freckled girl stirred, happy yet embarrassed to see her friends.

“What did it do to you?” Mike asked bewildered.

“We need to get out of here guys!,” she blushed, moving to sit up.

“No,” Jane spoke up, “I need to kill it.”

Mike shook his head, “You’re not strong enough right now and we need to go get Max cleaned up”

But the brunette wasn't listening and instead started to follow the sounds of the monster on her own. Mike gave Max an apologetic look before following behind Jane. He had to convince her to stop but his thoughts came to a halt when he spotted the spider monster. Jane threw a hand out to it, making a face of concentration but nothing happened. The pale girl put up her other hand but yet again there was no power left within her. The monster shot out an arm, throwing Jane into a wall like she was nothing. She crumpled to the ground, Mike yelling out her name. The monster grabbed Jane by her leg and held her upside down, letting her dangle there while it turned its attention back to him.

He stumbled back a bit at the uneasy feeling he was getting, looking up at Jane who was limp. The monster stalked forward, throwing Jane down on an abandoned hospital stretcher and lunging for Mike. He screamed as he was picked up by his shirt and slammed into the opposite wall, his ears ringing as the monster growled at him. He was shaking like a leaf as a slimy limp ran up his thigh. The monster held him in place with one strong arm while the limb slinking up his leg, dipped into his shorts. It froze for a second as it felt his limp cock. The monster was confused as to why Mike was different from Max. It ripped the shorts and boxers from the dumbfounded teenager, letting the cold air touch his cock.

The spider monster let it's tongue lick at Mike's cock before it coiled a limb around the boy, beginning to tug and squeeze at his now hardening dick. He blushed deeply, struggling against the monster as it jerked him off.

Jane screamed his name weakly and he looked over the monster's shoulder to see her watching, petrified and too sore to move, too weak to help him. He couldn't fight back the moans that started to escape him as his cock started to twitch in the monster's slimy, hot grasp. Once he was fully erect the monster let go of his shaft. To Mike's horror, something started to grow at the base of the monster. A coil of limbs and slime created a makeshift cock, mimicking Mike's except it was massive and thick. It was bigger than a yardstick. Mike swallowed in fear as the monster dragged him from the wall, setting him on his feet in front of Jane.

He was bent over the stretcher by a limb and his ass was spread by two more. The monster growled at the sight of Mike's tight pink hole, running its tongue along it and the boy's straining balls. Mike couldn't look at Jane with how his head was being forced down but he got a hold of her hand.

The monster was spreading Jane's legs, licking along her clothed pussy as it had done to Max. She whined and squirmed but she had no strength to move. Meanwhile the monster was rubbing the head of its cock along Mike's hole, slathering it in hot slime. It wasted no time before it began to prod at the small entrance, forcing its monstrous tip into Mike with a single push. It wasn't much but the teen felt like he was being ripped apart. He cried out in pain and the monster continued to squeeze into his hole, spreading him open in front of his girlfriend. A limb wrapped around Mike's cock again, jerking him off as it started to pump its cock in and out of the helpless boy.

The stretcher creaked as the beast fucked him, filling him past the brim, bulging his tummy without even being one third of the way inside of him. Soon the slimy hold of his cock was too much for Mike and he came all over the floor, even as his hole was being thrashed. The monster put a pause on licking Jane, throwing Mike to the floor and beginning to plow into the boy on the floor like the wild monster it was. It was enjoying this tight space more than Max's pussy, even if her juices were sweeter than Mike's precum from earlier.

Mike's face was against the hard floor, praying the monster would finish soon. The cock slid deeper inside him in this position, the squelching sounds coming from his ass were loud in his ears.

"Please cum already! Please, please, please," Mike started to beg the unresponsive beast. All he could do was submit and take the cock.

But after one more weak orgasm from Mike, the monster screeched and began to pump him nice and full with its own form of cum. His belly felt full as the monster pulled out of him. Mike groaned as he tried to push out all of the thick cum that had been poured into him. The monster made a clicking sound before it started to walk away from the two teens. Mike looked pitifully up at the brunette who's crotch was wet and slimy before letting his head rest on the floor in exhaustion. His asshole no longer tight but instead gaping and sticky with milky white monster cum.
